Extra Sponsorship Challenge

If your school wants to take Go Green to the next level, we have an extra sponsorship challenge your students can participate in. If you elect to do this, send home the enclosed form with your students, so they can ask friends and family to support dyslexia awareness.

The child who raises the most money for charity will receive a Nessy rucksack filled with goodies! Ask the child who raises the most to take a photo with their sponsorship form and send it to gogreen@nessy.com

The top 3 fundraisers in the UK will receive a special prize!
